IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYAN AT CHANDIGARH

R.S.A. No. 1052 of 2006
Date of decision: January 23,2007

Bakhshish Singh V. M/s.Bhullar Trading Company

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE VINEY MITTAL

Present: Shri B.S.Thind,Advocate, for the appellant.
Shri Dhiraj Narula, Advocate, for the respondent.

Viney Mittal,J.(Oral)

The plaintiff having lost concurrently before the two courts below has approached this court through the present Regular Second Appeal.

In a suit for rendition of account filed by the plaintiff, both the courts below have found that since the plaintiff has himself admitted that no amount was due towards defendant regarding the crop sold by him,therefore, the plaintiff was not entitled to seek rendition of account, as prayed.

During the course of arguments before this court, learned counsel for the appellant has not been able to point out any infirmity in the findings of fact recorded by the two courts below.

No question of law, much less any substantial question of law, arises in the present appeal.

Dismissed.
